A letter from a graduate and staff's mother that I received December 2011.

Parent's Decision Saves Their Son's Life

A few weeks ago a friend from church came up to me and said, "We did not think you knew what you were doing when you sent Sterling to Teen Challenge, now we understand." We had just left the funeral of his other best friend, Darwin.

Sterling came home in December of 2007 to attend Waylon's funeral. He had suffered an overdose from over the counter cold medicine. On December 4, 2011 Darwin had been found dead, a heroin overdose.

Sterling and Waylon were born 2 days apart and at age 13, Darwin was finally pulled away from his addict mother and began living three boys who were inseparable, always at youth group and Sterling and Darwin played in the worship band. I do not know the details of the paths the other boys took, but when we saw Sterling's decline, we knew immersion in Jesus Christ was his only hope. Thank you for your faithfulness and your tenacious determination to give our son, and others like him, a chance for life and wholeness.

Let me give you a Sterling update. When he first came home, he became a helper in our youth department. A few months ago, he began playing drums for the Sunday morning worship at Real Life Church in Fort Worth. This month, (December, 2011), he was asked to join the staff as the youth pastor. He is working at Conn's selling electronics and appliances. On his second day, he was the top salesman. He plans to begin the North Texas District School of Ministry.

Sterling has met a special young lady and it was her devotion to God's Word that attracted him to her.

I know you see daily miracles, but just wanted to encourage you by letting you know that we are continuing to see the unfolding of a life committed in service to Christ, Thank you!
